

Photograph of a container ship off Monterey, California on June 13, 1994 and the resulting ship track produced downwind of the ship from condensation onto particles produced by the ship exhaust. An approximate length scale is shown. (Photograph from the RC-10 camera on NASA ER-2 aircraft.)