

The Weddell Polynya, September 1975. In (a), purple represents highly consolidated ice while light blue represents open water while in (b), black represents open water while white represents ice covered areas or clouds. (Data from the (a) ESMR instrument on the Nimbus 5 satellite and (b) AVHRR instrument on the NOAA-4 satellite.)